

PETS WITHOUT PARENTS
AUGUST FEATURED VOLUNTEER
CIARA PRICE

What I like best about volunteering at PWP: I like the feeling that I am making a difference.

My pets at home: Scamp, 7 ½ year old poodle-terrier mix; Jetta, 5 year old Chihuahua-beagle mix; Rosemary, 2 year old tortoiseshell cat (we fostered her and her kittens and ending up keeping her.)

What I'd like you to know about me: I'm a student at Columbus State Community College studying to become a social worker. I've been volunteering at Pets Without Parents for two and a half years.

Dogs Rule or Cats Rule? They are both unique and have their own great qualities; I can't really choose one over the other.

What's your advice to someone wanting to adopt a pet for the first time: Realize how much time and money it will require to take care of a new pet, also make sure that you have enough room in your heart for a new family member.

Where you can find me when I'm not at PWP: I'd be in class, at work, hanging out with friends, or catching up on some sleep.

What is your advice for a new volunteer? Don't be afraid to ask for help from employees or other volunteers! We are all here to help the animals.
